EUGENE PERRY AND MAGGIE LINDSAY BROWN

Eugene P. Brown was born 16 October 1877 to Leverett Wesley and Rachel Naegle Brown. He married Maggie Lindsay 18 July 1907. She was the daughter of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay.

Eugene came to Heber as a young man, working for John Austin as a sheep herder. He met and married Maggie Lindsay. He and his brother-in-law, Fredrick Crook, bought a herd of sheep and he cared for them till his retirement in 1942.

Maggie Brown was an industrious woman. She was a faithful visitor to folks who were unable to leave their home. Her hands were always busy. She was a dependable member of the 3rd Ward Relief Society quilting group. She died June 1, 1960.

Eugene and Maggie were the parents of seven children, four are living: Ralph, Agnes (Mrs. Orvil Smith), Leah (Mrs. Monty Montgomery), Clarence.

Bert died for his country in Italy in World War II.
